

I am against the media consolidation being considered by the FCC. Allowing giants like Clear Channel to own more and more media outlets only LOWERS the amount of fairness, objectivity, and differing viewpoints able to be seen and heard over the public airwaves, and reduces the ability of the public to voice its own opinion. I have written my congressman regarding this matter. Please consider my comment and decide NOT to allow further media consolidation in the United States of America.